Black and British: Listening

Listen to a conversation about football matches, then answer the questions.

1. Does racism exist today? What evidence is given? 4
2. Why are people not as open about racism as they were in the 1970s? 1
3. What social interaction can happen at a football match that does not usually happen ? 2
4. What special quality does this require, however? 2
5. What occurred to the speaker after thinking about the issue of racism in football? 2
6. Did Cyrille Regis agree with the speaker? 1

12 marks

.

The United Kingdom's international organisation for educational opportunities and cultural relations. We are registered in England as a charity.
Printed on 100% recycled paper - the British Council understands the importance of protecting the environment