3 Look at sentences a—e How does using each of the modal verbs affect the sentence?

   a. would = definitely true; could = a possible outcome
   b. could = suggested solution, possible outcome; will = certain result or outcome
   c. should = suggests it is true; could = a possible outcome
   d. may = a possible result; might = a less possible result than may
   e. can = very likely (presumably experience shows that this is often true; will = definite outcome