

TASK CONTEXT

- You are going to plan and present a short news broadcast on the topic of Coronavirus and the environment.
- There will be a Reporter and an Anchor and you could also have other roles, such as a Meteorologist or a Sports Reporter.
- You will be given an example script to help you and a list of useful phrases.
- You can also look at example news broadcasts online for inspiration.
- Try to really get into character!

SUCCESS CRITERIA

- Research a news story related to Coronavirus and the environment. It can be positive or negative.
- Decide on the role of each member of your group.
- Plan and present your news broadcast.
- Use the example script to help you.
- Try to incorporate some of the functional language phrases to make your broadcast more realistic.
- Speak for 2-3 minutes in total.
- Listen actively to your classmates' broadcasts!

