

The environment: statements to debate

Plastic production should be banned immediately.

Nuclear energy is totally clean and safe.

Recycling is a complete waste of time and money.

Schools should close on days when pollution levels are high.

Cars should be banned from circulating in city centres.

The climate crisis is irreversible.

Saving the planet is the responsibility of young people.

Individuals cannot make a difference without the cooperation of big companies.

The climate crisis should be the number one priority of all governments.