

Module Overview

Overall objectives:

In this module students will:

- read about small acts of kindness that changed people's lives
- learn and use vocabulary for talking about acts of kindness
- listen to some young people talking about how to help a friend
- identify and use question tags to check or confirm information.

Project:

Plan, implement and report on a project for spreading kindness.

My Links:

Practise grammar	Review the form and use of question tags with these activities.	http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/grammar-vocabulary/grammar-videos/question-tags
	Refresh your knowledge of comparative and superlative adjectives with these activities	https://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/grammar/beginner-grammar/comparative-superlative-adjectives
	Refresh your knowledge of comparative and superlative forms with these activities.	http://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org/en/art/art-scene-2-language-focus

Get ideas for your own acts of kindness	Find out more about Pay It Forward Day	http://payitforwardday.com/
	Get some ideas for things you could do for Pay It Forward Day.	http://payitforwardday.com/get-involved/individuals/ideas-on-paying-it-forward/
	Learn more about some of the best Pay It Forward stories around the world.	http://payitforwardday.com/inspire-me/best-pay-it-forward-stories/
	Watch some inspiring videos for Pay It Forward day.	http://payitforwardday.com/inspire-me/inspiringvideos/
	Find out more about 'Random Acts of Kindness', see what others have done and get some inspiration.	https://www.randomactsofkindness.org/get-inspired
	Get some inspiration for your own acts of kindness by looking at these ideas.	https://www.randomactsofkindness.org/kindness-ideas
	Read this blog post on why volunteering can be a very positive experience for all involved.	http://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/magazine/life-around-world/why-i-love-volunteering