

Crime

break the law

first time offender

plead guilty

charge of theft

attacker

cruelty to animals

repeat an offence

speeding near schools

repeat offender

reoffending rate

commit a crime

victim of assault

Punishment

a municipal judge

prison sentence

go to jail

put on probation

community service

get off lightly

serve a jail sentence

creative sentencing

speeding fine

house arrest

spend the night in jail

be in court

1. A man caught with a loaded gun	a) were ordered to throw a picnic for the primary school children whose outing was cancelled due to the prank.
2. A man who shot a dog	b) was ordered to sit outside the store wearing a blindfold and holding a sign that read "See no evil."
3. Two teenagers who scrawled 666 on a nativity figure of Jesus	c) was sentenced to donating 40 lbs of dog food on every holiday to the Lake County Animal Shelter.
4. Teenagers who flattened tires on school buses	d) was ordered to spell out the sentence "I stole coins from this church" entirely in coins and apologize to each worshipper as they enter the church.
5. A man who committed a traffic violation while shouting "pigs" at police officers	e) was made to stand on a street corner with a 350-pound pig and a sign that said "This is not a police officer."
6. An 18-year-old male who stole pornography from an adult book store	f) was sent to a morgue to see corpses.
7. A man who stole a red collection kettle with about $250 from the Salvation Army	g) was sentenced to spend 24 hours homeless.
8. A woman who was convicted of stealing from a church	h) had to lead a donkey through the streets, with a sign saying: "Sorry for the jackass offense, but he is soooo cute!"
9. A woman who was pleaded guilty to animal cruelty and neglect for abandoning a dog in a uninhabitable house	i) was compelled to read articles on the consequences of child abuse, and then discuss them in the courtroom in front of the judge, the victim's mother, and spectators.
10. A nanny accused of hitting a boy with a belt	j) was given a choice of serving 90 days in jail or picking up garbage for 8 hours in the Lake County Landfill. The defendant chose to work in the landfill.