

Frozen Light is a pioneering UK company known for creating exciting and innovative theater shows designed for audiences dealing with Profound and Multiple Learning Difficulties. Their productions are carefully crafted to involve all aspects of human senses, offering a sensory experience that includes captivating visuals, engaging sounds, touch, scent, and even taste.

Frozen Light's latest masterpiece, "The Isle of Brimsker," is receiving praise locally and nationally. This unique theatrical experience combines captivating storytelling with sensory delights, featuring enchanting melodies from atmospheric piano and soulful guitar strings for an otherworldly ambiance.

"The Isle of Brimsker" tells the story of a lonely lighthouse keeper, whose life takes a turn when a shipwrecked runaway enters the scene. Using spoken word and music, the play brings out a range of emotions, turning the keeper's solitary life into a colorful journey with surprises and self-discovery. Frozen Light goes beyond typical theater to create an experience that deeply touches the audience.
