

Phrasal verb - "when a child speaks rudely to someone when they have been told off"

He got in trouble at school for answering the teacher during the lesson.

back up off away

Word formation "Represent"

- 1. You can't really draw any conclusions from such an sample of people. They are not the right age or occupation for our purposes.
- 2. The painting is said to be a of jealousy.
- 3. He works as a for a major cosmetics company .

collocation: "to sight of something or someone"

As we drove through the mountains we sight of a beautiful village down in a valley.

