

Part 1 (2 minutes)

The examiner will ask you one or two questions about yourself and what you think about everyday topics such as work or study, travel, holidays, daily life and routines. For example:

- What do you enjoy most about visiting other countries? (Why?)
- What kind of books do you usually read for pleasure? (Why?)
- If you could be really good at one sport, what would it be?

Part 2 (4 minutes)

Turn to the pictures on page 182, which show people and animals.

PEOPLE AND ANIMALS

Candidate A, I'd like you to compare two of the pictures, and say why the animals might be important to the people, and how the people might be feeling.

Candidate B, who do you think will have the longest relationship with the animals? (Why?)

GETTING AROUND

Turn to the pictures on page 184, which show people getting around in different ways.

Candidate B, compare two of the pictures and say why the people might have chosen to get around in these ways, and why their journey might be important to them.

Candidate A, who do you think will remember their journey the longest? (Why?)

Part 3 (4 minutes)

Turn to the diagram on page 183, which shows some things that many people think indicate a successful life.

Now, talk to each other about how far these things indicate a successful life.

Now decide which one is the best indication of a successful life.

Part 4 (5 minutes)

Answer these questions.

- What does success mean for you? (Why?)
- Some people say it's not important to be successful, it's better to be happy. What do you think? Why?
- Do you think that people are too concerned about being successful these days? (Why / Why not?)
- Some people are not at all ambitious. Is this a bad thing? (Why / Why not?)
- What do you think drives sports people to try to be champions? (Why?)
- Some people, like artists or composers, are only recognised after their death. Why do you think this is?

Part 2 Candidate A

- Why might the animals be important to the people?
- How might the people be feeling?

- Why might the people have chosen to get around in these ways?
- Why might their journey be important to them?
